Circular No. 1125—45, dated 18*th August* 1874.

The Judicial Commissioner observes that the provisions of Section 114, Criminal Procedure Code, do not seem to be understood.

2. They contemplate that first intimation-reports be sent to the Magistrate before the Police go to the spot, the object being both to expedite the report of such cases to the Magistrate, and also that the latter may have the purport of the complaint in its first aspect without any such coloring as it might acquire through a police report of investigation.

3. It is not necessary that the investigating officer should delay to proceed to the spot until the report be despatched. This matter can be attended to by the station-writer, the report being merely a copy of the substance of the complaint already reduced to writing, and under Section 112, Criminal Procedure Code, entered in the station-diary.

4. In grave cases it should always be sent by express.

5. These instructions will be carefully attended to by Killedars and station-house officers.
